

V-Learning

Types of trading entity and their liability under civil and criminal consumer protection law

Session Date & Time: Tuesday 16th November 2021
10:00 to 11:00

Objectives: To examine the different types of trading entity and the liability of their owners and officers, under civil and criminal consumer protection legislation, when things go wrong.

Tutor: Peter Stonely

Peter has extensive experience of training Trading Standards and businesses on the Act. He is a joint Lead Officer for Civil Law for the Chartered Trading Standards Institute.

Programme:

The session will cover the following areas:

- Unincorporated business organisations - Sole traders & Partnerships
- Incorporated business organisations - Companies, Limited Liability Partnerships and Community Interest Companies
- Identifying different types of trading entity
- Liability under civil law and trading standards law
- Franchises - same shop different owner

You will be encouraged to ask questions throughout the session and you are also welcome to submit these in advance.

CPD Hours: 1 hour

Who should attend?

This session will be suitable for any delegates who want to find out more about the basics of the different types of trading entity and how this will be relevant to trading standards work.

Fee & Booking: £27 plus VAT per delegate

Use our V-Learning booking form

What is V-Learning?

V-Learning gives you access to some of the UK's top experts in their subject areas. The session will be delivered using Microsoft Teams, so you will be able to see, hear and interact with the presenter.

No travelling costs and a real practical focus on the law makes this training incredible value for the individual learner and their employer. By limiting numbers we can allow you time to ask questions, both in advance and during the training.

Check on our website www.stonelytraining.co.uk for the full V-Learning programme.